welcome to the 36th Miami book fair!

When our first Miami Book Fair (MBF) launched at Miami Dade College (MDC) in 1984, the Fair was but the seed of a dream to establish Miami as a global hub for literature, a place where authors, publishers, and artists could convene, meaningfully collaborate, and reach diverse publics.

The visionary powering this dream, Dr. Eduardo J. Padron, is still very much at work alongside us, his intellectual acumen and hard-won wisdom a north star. As Dr. Padron steps into his new role as President Emeritus of Miami Dade College, we look back in gratitude, but also forward, tirelessly continuing to realize the vision of an inclusive, attentive, sustainable community of writers, readers, and collaborators across all disciplines and cultures in South Florida.

MDC’s MBF is the heart of literary culture in South Florida, yet this would not be possible without careful planning on our part, or the committed support and generous contributions of people like you. Recently our staff completed a strategic plan, ensuring the Fair’s continued success and ability to serve the community for many more years to come. As a result we are launching several new and exciting programs, such as:

- SPEAK UP, a teen initiative focused on supporting the artistic, personal, and professional growth of teenagers by offering creative writing workshops, quarterly open mics, and a youth slam poetry program. OUR FIRST CLASS OF SPEAK UP TEEN POETS HAS JUST ENROLLED! REGISTRATION FOR SPRING WORKSHOP OPENS JANUARY 20, 2020.

- THE EMERGING WRITERS NATIONAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM, aimed at increasing equity and representation in the literary sector by supporting new literary voices.

- 305 GENIUS FACTORY, a multidisciplinary creative writing program and learning center to empower under-resourced children and teens.

- WORLD IN TRANSLATION, a series of cultural events and activities designed to expand the audience for works in translation, exposing South Floridians and visitors to an even greater range of international authors.

To make a donation, or learn more about our strategic plan, please contact Corey Lewis, MBF Corporate Relations and Donations Manager at 305.237.7847 or clewis@mdc.edu.

KADRIR NELSON, 2019 Miami Book Fair Poster Artist

Nelson began drawing at the age of three, displaying artistic acumen before he could write or spell. He began entering his paintings in art competitions and ultimately won an art scholarship to study at Pratt Institute. Upon graduating with honors, Nelson began his professional career as an artist, publishing his work and receiving commissions from Dreamworks, Sports Illustrated, Coca-Cola, The New York Times and Major League Baseball, among others. His striking painting of the late Nelson Mandela was featured on the cover of the New Yorker magazine. Nelson has also authored and illustrated several award-winning New York Times Best-Selling picture books including, We Are the Ship: The Story of Negro League Baseball and Heart and Soul: The Story of America and African Americans.

EVENINGS WITH
Where else can you spend the evening with a Tony Award-winning playwright, a New York Times opinion writer, a renowned political commentator, a cult-movie legend, a bona fide rock icon, a Pulitzer Prize-winning author, a television news host, and a former U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations? Once again, Miami Book Fair presents the authors and books animating today’s American culture, including EVE ENSLER, BARI WEISS, GEORGE F. WILL, JOHN WATERS, DEBBIE HARRY, MO ROCCA, RICHARD RUSSO, JOY-ANN REID, and SAMANTHA POWER, plus nominees and winners of the 2019 NATIONAL BOOK AWARDS.

The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With program is THE FAIR IN SPANISH.

READCARIBBEAN
ReadCaribbean programming features extensive Caribbean-specific events, including readings and panel discussions, storytelling for children, music, publishers at Street Fair, and more. When appropriate, author events will take place in Creole or French with simultaneous interpretation into English. For all things Caribbean, look for the ⚽️.

A very special thank you to Sosyete Koukouy members JAN MAPOU, MYRTHA VROY, CERCINE CATOR, SHERLEY LOUIS, EDELINE CLERMONT, and MARIE SANSARICQ, who collaborate with Miami Book Fair on all ReadCaribbean programs, including the Little Haiti Book Festival, which takes place annually in May. Established in 1985, Sosyete Koukouy is dedicated to preserving Haitian culture in the United States. Their mission is the preservation, perpetuation and presentation, of Haitian cultural performances and exhibitions for Creole and non-Creole-speaking audiences.

NATIONAL BOOK FOUNDATION x MIAMI BOOK FAIR
AN EVENING WITH NATIONAL BOOK AWARDS NOMINEES AND WINNERS
In partnership with the National Book Foundation, and with the generous support of the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, Miami Book Fair welcomes the 2019 nominees and winners of the prestigious National Book Foundation’s National Book Awards in all categories: Fiction, Nonfiction, Poetry, Translation, and Young People’s Literature. See page 23.

Sponsored by KNIGHT FOUNDATION

NATIONAL BOOK FOUNDATION TEEN PRESS CONFERENCE
High school students from Miami-Dade County public schools transform into journalists for a day at the MBF x National Book Awards’ Teen Press Conference. Student reporters participate in a mock press conference — lobbing questions at the authors on the dais — all of whom are nominees for or winners of the 2019 National Book Award in Young People’s Literature. See page 62.

THE PORCH—IT’S SOOOO MIAMI!
Come chill at the ultimate, outdoor, urban hangout. From Friday, November 22 through Sunday, November 24, The Porch (located at the northwest corner of N.E. 2nd Ave. and N.E. 3rd St.) showcases an eclectic line up of established and emerging Miami-based talent, including DJ’s and live bands, funky-nerdy literary events, and large scale art exhibitions. The Porch’s beer bar features brews by Miami’s own Biscayne Brewery. The Porch is sponsored by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation and Miami Downtown Development Authority. For a list of ongoing exhibits, games, and other diversions, see page 25 and look for the .

While you’re hanging out on The Porch, don’t miss this fascinating photographic depiction of South Beach’s once-thriving and now-vanished Jewish world of the late 1970s. Andy Sweet’s photos capture this community’s daily rhythms in all their beach-strolling, cafeteria-noshing and klezmer-dancing glory. Photos are from the book Shtetl in the Sun: Andy Sweet’s South Beach 1977–1980 (Letter16 Press). The book is edited by, and includes a foreword from, award-winning Miami arts journalist BRETT SOKOL, as well as an introductory essay by National Book Award finalist and New York Times bestselling author LAUREN GROFF.

JUDAIC THEMES & TOPICS
As part of Miami Book Fair’s ongoing commitment to present the widest possible range of perspectives, we’re pleased to offer a series of books regarding Judaic themes and topics. Look for the .

BOOK FAIR SWAG
A visit to the Book Fair wouldn’t be complete without eating arepas and buying some swag! Don’t miss out on all the official 2019 Miami Book Fair items for sale in the official merchandise booth on the corner of N.E. 2nd Avenue and 4th Street.

LITERARY AWARDS
The Fair doesn’t only present great books, it rewards them.

MIAMI BOOK FAIR/DE GROOT LITERARY PRIZE is awarded to exceptional fiction of 17,500–40,000 words. The Prize, judged this year by novelist JUSTIN TORRES, offers the winner and runners up a cash award. The winner’s book is published by Melville House. The winner of the first (2017) De Groot Prize was Marci Vogel for her novella, Death & Other Holidays. The 2019 winner and runners-up will be honored at next year’s Fair. The submission period for the 2021 award begins in February 2021. Check miamibookfair.com for details.

Paz Prize for Poetry:
Sponsored by the Miami Book Fair, and in partnership with the National Poetry Series, the Paz Prize for Poetry is given biannually to a poetry collection written in Spanish by a poet living in the U.S. The winner receives a cash award, translation of their work into English, and publication by Akashic Books. The winner of the 2018–20 Prize is JOHNNY VÁZQUEZ PAZ for Ofrezco mi corazón como una diana. Paz will participate in this year’s Fair. The submission period for the 2020 Paz Prize begins May 1, 2020. Check miamibookfair.com for details. Winners of other National Poetry Series prizes will participate in a reading during this Fair.
MBF LIVE!

C-SPAN2 BOOKTV broadcasts live from the Fair. Programming includes panel coverage and interviews, as well as national viewer call-ins with authors. Miami Book Fair live streams selected author events on its website. For more information, visit miamibookfair.com.

KIDS’ FAIR!

Generation Genius Days are here again! Reading, writing, storytelling, art, and music — they all lead to discovery and a life-long love of books and stories. Once again, the Fair will bring more than 9,000 schoolchildren on buses to the Fair so they can meet their favorite authors and receive FREE books! Catch live presentations by some of the most beloved authors for kids and young adults, with readings by Jon Scieszka, Liz Braswell, Angie Thomas, and many more! Children’s Alley will present stilts walkers, storytelling, breakdancing demos, street theatre, a scavenger hunt and live music! The Pop-Up Fun Rooms in Children’s Alley give kids a chance to explore, design, and create in a variety of themes and settings! See pages 59–71.

READ TO LEARN BOOKS FOR FREE

Read to Learn Books for Free encourages families to read together by giving them easy access to free children’s books. The Miami Book Fair’s 65 Read to Learn bookshelf locations throughout Miami-Dade County include community health clinics, WIC offices, and the Children’s Courthouse. Help us get books to the kids who need them most by donating $1 at Street Fair entrances on Saturday and Sunday, or by buying books for $1 at the Read to Learn Books for Free booth.

In partnership with The Children’s Trust.

DESTINATION: COMICS

Love comics and graphic novels or want to dip your toe in the inky waters? Make Destination: Comics your go-to spot! Destination: Comics features comics exhibitors, publishers, indie artists, and the Artists’ Cove booth where authors will be selling their wares and doing some on-the-fly illustrating and chatting with fans about all things comics! Be sure not to miss panels with creators such as Lianna Finck, Paul Pope, Chris Ware, Diane Noomin, Brian Fies, Ben Passmore and so many others—all taking place in the MAGIC Screening Room (first floor of building 8). Check out this year’s lineup in our weekend author grid or just look for the !

Big thanks to our committee of comics industry professionals, Joan Hilty and Conor McCreery, for their programming support.

BARI WEISS IN CONVERSATION WITH ALANA NEWHOUSE

6 p.m. / Chapman (Bldg. 3, 2nd Floor)
Tickets $20

The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With series is WRN Public Media

BARI WEISS is a staff editor and writer for the New York Times. She writes about culture and politics. Bari was an op-ed and book review editor at the Wall Street Journal before joining the Times in 2017. She is a native of Pittsburgh and graduated from Columbia University. On October 27, 2018, eleven Jews were gunned down as they prayed at their synagogue in Pittsburgh. It was the deadliest attack on Jews in American history. For most Americans, the massacre at Tree of Life, the synagogue where Weiss became a bat mitzvah, came as a total shock. But anti-Semitism is the oldest hatred, commonplace across the Middle East and on the rise for years in Europe. So, that terrible morning in Pittsburgh raised a question Americans can no longer avoid: Could it happen here? How to Fight Anti-Semitism (Crown) is Weiss’s answer. Not just for the sake of America’s Jews, but for the sake of America. Weiss’s cri de coeur is an unnerving reminder that Jews must never lose their hard-won instinct for danger, and a powerful case for renewing Jewish and American values in uncertain times. Author Lisa Taddeo calls How to Fight Anti-Semitism “Stunning . . . Bari Weiss is heroic, fearless, brilliant, and big-hearted. Most importantly, she is right.” Weiss will be in conversation with ALANA NEWHOUSE, the editor-in-chief of Tablet Magazine.

EVE ENSLER IN CONVERSATION WITH AJA MONET

8 p.m. / Chapman (Bldg. 3, 2nd Floor)
Tickets $20

The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With series is WRN Public Media

EVE ENSLER is a Tony Award-winning playwright, author, performer, and activist. Her international phenomenon, The Vagina Monologues, has been published in 48 languages and performed in more than 140 countries. She is the founder of V-Day, the global activist movement to end violence against women and girls, and One Billion Rising, the largest global mass action to end gender-based violence in over 200 countries. Like millions of women, Eve Ensler has been waiting much of her lifetime for an apology. Sexually and physically abused by her father, Ensler has struggled her whole life from this betrayal, longing for an honest reckoning from a man who is long dead. After years of work as an anti-violence activist, she decided she would wait no longer. The Apology (Bloomsbury), written by Ensler from her father’s point of view in the words she longed to hear, attempts to transform the abuse she suffered with unflinching truthfulness, compassion, and an expansive vision for the future. Jane Fonda calls The Apology “A crucial step forward . . . This is an urgently needed book right now.”

AJA MONET is a Caribbean-American poet. Her poems are wise, lyrical, and courageous. Monet won the legendary Nuyorican Poet’s Café Grand Slam title and has been internationally recognized for combining her spellbound voice and vivid poetic imagery on stage. In 2018, Monet’s first full collection of poetry, My Mother Was A Freedom Fighter, was nominated for an NAACP Image Award for Outstanding Literary Work. She was a featured speaker at TEDWomen 2018 for her meaningful work in South Florida with Smoke Signals Studio.

The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With series is

The man The Wall Street Journal once called "perhaps the most powerful journalist in America" began his column with the Washington Post in 1974, and received the Pulitzer Prize for Commentary in 1977. To date, GEORGE F. WILL has written fourteen books, including One Man’s America; Men at Work; and Statecraft as Soulcraft. He writes a twice-weekly syndicated column on politics and domestic and foreign affairs for the Washington Post. He is also a regular contributor to MSNBC and NBC News. In his latest book, The Conservative Sensibility (Hachette Books), Will examines how the Founders’ belief in natural rights created a great American political tradition. Their beliefs in natural rights, limited government, religious freedom, and human virtue and dignity ushered in two centuries of American prosperity. Now, as Will shows, conservatism is under threat — both from progressives and elements inside the Republican Party. Senator Ben Sasse (R-Nebraska) called The Conservative Sensibility "A monumental achievement. [It] is not a ‘Washington book’ about partisan politics — it’s much bigger than that. It’s a career capstone that will stir your soul with its passionate reminder of what conservatism really means."

IN CONVERSATION WITH JOHN WATERS

8 p.m. / Chapman (Bldg. 3, 2nd Floor)

Tickets $20

The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With series is

JOHN WATERS is an American film director, screenwriter, actor, stand-up comedian, author, journalist, visual artist, and art collector. He is also the author of the best-selling books Role Models (2010) and Carsick (2014). His spoken word shows This Filthy World and A John Waters Christmas continue to be performed around the world. He rose to fame in the early 1970s for his transgressive cult films, especially Pink Flamingos, Female Trouble, and Desperate Living, which he has called the Trash Trilogy, as well as (slightly) more mainstream films Polyester and Hairspray, which was turned into a Broadway hit. In his newest book Mr. Know-It-All (Farrar, Straus and Giroux), Waters dishes it up well-done, and done more than once. He features cameos by a cast of dozens, from Divine, Mink Stole and Johnny Depp, to Kathleen Turner, Patricia Hearst, and Tracey Ullman, and includes photos from the author’s personal collection. In The New York Times Book Review, Alan Cumming noted "That John Waters is a national treasure is a surety. Period. Thank you and good night . . . [Mr. Know-It-All] shows a vulnerability and an honesty and an almost frantic desire to impart to us, before he can no longer, his manic mantras, his obsessive treatises and his biting and blisteringly honest bons mots that are actually really enlightening life lessons."

Waters will be in conversation with JUAN BARQUIN, co-creator and programmer of the queer film series Flaming Classics. He is also Miami-based writer and film critic whose work has appeared in Miami New Times, Miami Herald, Hyperallergic, LA Weekly, and more.
AN EVENING WITH MO ROCCA
6 p.m. / Chapman (Bldg. 3, 2nd Floor)
Tickets $20
The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With series is MO ROCCA, a correspondent for CBS Sunday Morning, host of The Henry Ford’s Innovation Nation, and host and creator of the Cooking Channel’s My Grandmother’s Ravioli, in which he learns to cook from grandmothers and grandfathers across the country. He’s a frequent panelist on NPR’s hit weekly quiz show Wait, Wait...Don’t Tell Me!, spent four seasons as a correspondent on Comedy Central’s The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, and four seasons as a correspondent on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno. In Mobituaries (Simon & Schuster), the journalist, humorist, and history buff profiles the people who have long fascinated him but whose lives were never truly examined, including Thomas Paine, Audrey Hepburn, and Billy Carter. Mobituaries is an insightful and unconventional account of the people who made life worth living for the rest of us, one that asks us to think about who gets remembered, and why.

PAT MITCHELL PRESENTS BECOMING A DANGEROUS WOMAN, IN CONVERSATION WITH CATALINA ESCOBAR.
7 p.m. / Auditorium (Bldg. 1, 2nd Floor)
Raised in a small town in Georgia with no money or connections, PAT MITCHELL went on to become a consummate media game-changer. She was the first woman president of PBS, CNN Productions, and The Paley Center for Media, as well as an award-winning producer of documentaries and TV series. She is the cofounder and curator of TEDWomen and the Connected Women Leaders Initiative, chair of Sundance Institute and Co-Chair of The Women’s Media Center, trustee of the Skoll Foundation, and advisor to Participant Media. In Becoming a Dangerous Woman (Seal Press), she shares her own path to power, from a childhood spent on a cotton farm in the South to her unprecedented rise in media and global affairs. Alongside revelatory interviews with other dangerous women, Mitchell takes us on a lively journey, sharing with readers intimate anecdotes about navigating the power paradigms of Washington D.C. and Hollywood, traveling to war zones with Eve Ensler and Glenn Close, pressing Fidel Castro into making a historic admission about the Cold War, and matching wits with Ted Turner and Robert Redford.

Mitchell will be in conversation with CATALINA ESCOBAR, recognized social entrepreneur. Granted the National Merit Order Award by Colombian President Juan Manuel Santos in 2011, she joined the Fortune/U.S. State Department Global Women’s Mentoring Partnership and became a CNN Hero in 2012.

AN EVENING WITH DEBBIE HARRY
8 p.m. / Chapman (Bldg. 3, 2nd Floor)
Tickets $20
The presenting sponsor of this year’s Evenings With series is DEBBIE HARRY, musician, actor, and activist, is best known as the singer and front person of the punk/New Wave/pop band Blondie. After the group broke up in the early ’80s, Harry embarked on a successful solo career, recording five solo albums. Meanwhile, Harry developed an acting career during which she amassed 30 film roles and several television appearances. In her memoir, Face It (Dey Street Books), she blends first-person essays, interviews conducted by journalist Sylvie Simmons, never-before-seen photographs, illustrations, and fan art installations to recount in intimate detail the downtown scene of 1970s New York City, a time and a place where Blondie played alongside the Ramones, Television, Talking Heads, Iggy Pop, and David Bowie and interacted with artists such as Jean-Michel Basquiat. The book traces her path from commercial success and heroin addiction, to the near death of her partner and Blondie co-founder Chris Stein, bankruptcy, blondie’s breakup, her acting career, and the return of the band. Harry will be joined by CHRIS STEIN; and moderator ROB ROTH, who is also creative director of Face It and director of this multimedia performance.

and varied collection of cultural artifacts, and a glimpse into the art of collecting. Rooted in international University. It was the basis for the Wolfsonian Museum-FIU, a research center and museum. In Wolfsonian-FIU: Founder’s Choice

MITCHELL "MICKY" WOLFSOHN, JR. established The Wolfsonian Foundation, a research center and museum in Miami Beach, in 1986. He is an avid collector of modern art and design. In 1997, he donated his collection, estimated at 80,000 objects, and the state-of-the-art museum to Florida International University. It was the basis for the Wolfsonian Museum-FIU, a research center and museum. In Wolfsonian-FIU: Founder’s Choice (Editions Scala), Wolfson offers a personal take on the museum’s rich and varied collection of cultural artifacts, and a glimpse into the art of collecting. RICHARD RUSSO is the author of eight novels, including the Pulitzer Prize–winning Empire Falls, two collections of stories, a collection of essays, and a memoir. Chances Are... (Penguin Random House), his first stand-alone novel in 10 years, is an absorbing saga in which the bonds of friendship prove as constricting, and rewarding, as those of family or any other community. One beautiful September day, three men, friends ever since meeting in college circa the sixties, convene at Martha’s Vineyard. Each holds his own secrets, in addition to the mystery that none of them has ever stopped puzzling over since a Memorial Day weekend at the Vineyard in 1971: the disappearance of the woman they all loved. Publishers Weekly’s review noted that Russo’s Chances Are... "mixes his signature themes—father-and-son relationships, unrequited love, New England small-town living, and the hiccups of aging— with stealthy clue-dropping in a slow-to-build mystery. [...] This is vintage Russo."

MIAMI STORIES RECORDING BOOTH

Have a Miami story? Share it. Step inside the story booth and tell it in your own words. In partnership with HISTORYMIAMI MUSEUM, the Fair will host the Miami Stories booth, dedicated to recording stories about life in the Magic City. The collected stories are then preserved in the museum’s archive, and shared online and through local media outlets.

As the joke went, late ’70s South Beach was the Yiddish-speaking section of “God’s Waiting Room.” More than 20,000 elderly Jews, crammed into an area of barely two square miles, turned South Beach into a modern-day shtetl, the small, tightly knit Eastern European village that defined so much of pre-World War II Jewry.

Photos selected are from the Letter16 Press book, Shtetl in the Sun: Andy Sweet’s South Beach 1977–1980, a collection of previously unseen photographs documenting South Beach’s once-thriving and now-vanished Jewish world by American photographer ANDY SWEET (1953–82). Sweet’s photos capture this community’s daily rhythms in all their beach-strolling, cafeteria-noshing, and klezmer-dancing glory.

The book is edited by, and includes a foreword from, award-winning Miami arts journalist BRETT SOKOL, as well as an introductory essay by National Book Award finalist and New York Times bestselling author LAUREN GROFF.

LETTERPRESS DEMOS WITH TOM VIRGIN

Founder of Miami’s Extra Virgin Press and designer of the 2019 Porch poster, TOM VIRGIN, will be on hand during the weekend of Street Fair to talk about the craft of letterpress and demonstrate this beautiful art form.

CARIBBEAN JOURNEYS THROUGH TIME AND SPACE
3 p.m. / Room 8301 (Bldg.8, 3rd Floor)
Caribbean writers in and outside of the Caribbean have been creating meaningful and evocative settings using sensitive and sophisticated approaches to displacement and repatriation. They’ve written across real and unreal boundaries and drawn on their homelands’ history and landscapes in order to create a broader Caribbean literary pantheon. Panelists will discuss how they create and consider real and imagined spaces, with particular attention to identity and territoriality. The influence of place and time upon one’s writing is known, but what if one is from a place that has many places within place, many times within time? SARAJA COLLINS (Jamaica/London), DAVID CHARIANDY (Trinidad/Toronto), UVA DE ARACÓN (Cuba/Miami), and ANGIE CRUZ (Dominican Republic/New York) will explore how old addresses and new ones have shaped their literary selves and their work.

FOUR POETS: AN ACT OF WITNESS AND RECLAMATION
11 a.m. / Room 6100 (Bldg. 6, 1st Floor)

In How to Dress a Fish, ABIGAIL CHABITNOY works against the attempted erasure of lives disrupted by U.S. Indian boarding school policy. DARIUS V. DAUGHTRY’s And the Walls Came Tumbling is full of vulnerable, introspective poems that interrogate societal constructs of race, class, and gender. By turns tough and sexy, the poems in MORE BLACK BY T’AI FREEDOM FORD rhapsodize with musicians, artists, and writers. In dark/thing, ASHLEY M. JONES stares directly into the face of the racism that allows people to be seen as objects that can be killed/enslaved/oppressed/devalued.

HAITIAN DRAMA IN ITS DEATH THROES
11 a.m. / Room 8301 (Bldg. 8, 3rd Floor)

[IN ENGLISH WITH SIMULTANEOUS INTERPRETATION INTO HAITIAN CREOLE]

Historically, plays written in Haitian Creole have been vibrant and authentic, serving as a tool for educating the masses. The people of Haiti use drama in every form—religious drama (plays rooted in the Vodou religion), street theater, drama focused on social justice, activism, and revolutionary ideas—and all forms contribute in changing the political system in Haiti, with playwrights questioning the moral/ethical/social codes of their culture and bearing witness to their times. That is particularly true in the case of total theater, a work of art that unifies various literary disciplines (music, singing, dance, comedy, tragedy, mime, pantomime, etc.) and fosters an active audience participation. Haitian theater, however, whether set/performed in Haiti or in the diaspora, has been said to be in its death throes. Panelists PAULA CLERMONT PEAN, J. LYONEL DESMARATTES, GUY RÉGIS JR., and FRANTZ KIKI WAINWRIGHT will talk about the good, the bad, and the ugly of Haitian theater, and explore how mindful... storytelling, empathy, and metaphor are dramatic elements that can be mined to illuminate how to be a better citizen in increasingly harsh realities.

Twist on classic books featuring MBF Authors confessing their literary character crushes, the steamiest scenes from classic books, and what they’ve learned about love, friendship, sex—all the feels—from classic literature. Hosted by Penguin Classics Publisher ELDA ROTOR in conversation with MARLON JAMES and MARIS KREIZMAN.

IMMIGRANTS’ LIVES: NONFICTION
5 p.m. / Room 8201 (Bldg. 8, 2nd Floor)

Philippine born author GRACE TALUSAN’S memoir The Body Papers retracts a family history threaded with violence, abuse and cancer, ultimately shining a light of hope into the darkness. AARON BOBROW-STRAIN’s The Death and Life of Aida Hernandez: A Border Story reveals the human consequences of militarizing the U.S. border.

ENCUENTRO CON ARTURO PÉREZ REVERTE
6:30 p.m. / Chapman (Bldg. 3, 2nd Floor)

The Miami Book Fair’s Ibero-American Authors Program closes its 2019 edition with the great Spanish writer and journalist ARTURO PÉREZ REVERTE. Reverte’s long bibliography includes titles such as The Flanders Panel, The Club Dumas, The Fencing Master, The Seville Communion, The Nautical Chart, Queen of the South and What We Become. In 1996, he launched The Adventures of Captain Alatriste collection, consisting of seven titles. Reverte has received important awards and his works have been translated into more than forty languages. He joined the Royal Spanish Academy in 2003. Since 2016, he has served as editor and co-founder of the Zenda books and authors website. Reverte presents his most recent book: Sidi (Penguin Random House), a story of exile and border towns, of the struggles to survive in a hostile territory filled with opposing forces. Reverte will be in conversation with Colombian narrator and journalist JUAN CARLOS BOTERO.

ON MINDFULNESS
5:30 p.m. / Room 2106 (Bldg. 2, 1st Floor)

SHARON SALZBERG’s Real Love offers a creative toolkit of mindfulness exercises, meditation techniques, and interactive applications that will guide readers to find a truer meaning of love. Salzberg will be in conversation with SCOTT ROGERS, founder of the University of Miami School of Law’s Mindfulness in Law Program.

• On Friday, November 22, GENERATION GENIUS SCHOOL FIELD TRIPS bring nearly 9,000 students from all over Miami-Dade County to the Fair to meet their favorite authors (and receive free books!).

• TWEENS & TEENS will find a lineup of bestselling authors in fantasy, action, horror, and graphic novels.

• The bus stop becomes the "BUSK STOP" when street performers take over the bus stop on 1st Avenue behind Children’s Alley.

• PATH: PRESERVING, ARCHIVING & TEACHING HIP HOP, INC. puts hands, hips, heads, and hearts on the path to hip-hop enlightenment.

• The concert hall comes to Children’s Alley when MUSICALL presents an orchestra and children’s choir.

• Join ENCANTOS MEDIA to read and color with books from their award-winning baby brand CANTICOS. Sample the cultural wonders of the world in their TINY TRAVELERS BOOK SERIES. And marvel at their Day of the Dead-inspired collection SKELETITOS.

• Latin Grammy-nominated band COLECTIVO ANIMAL presents "EL BOSQUE ENCANTADO," musical stories about animals and ancient legends inspired by an Indigenous worldview.

• Move to the beat of your own drum with THE SOUTH FLORIDA CENTER FOR PERCUSSIVE ARTS, who will teach us about rhythm through fun and interactive percussion games.

• Create your own original art, learn about historical movers and shakers, and draw your own self-portrait — it’s all happening in the POP-UP FUN ROOMS in Children’s Alley.

• POP-UP AND ROVING PERFORMANCES: Look out, or up, for the STILT WALKERS. CIRKO TEATRO, makes its return engagement of the hilarious local favorite "El show de Enriqueta y Agapito." The FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE & EDUCATION MOBILE STEAM FESTIVAL puts the spirit of discovery in your hands with air-propelled rockets, marine-focused VR goggles, human electricity circuits, and more. And enjoy a good old-fashioned scavenger hunt with Candlewick’s WHERE’S WALDO?

WHETHER YOU’RE THE PARENT OF A CHILD JUST LEARNING THEIR ABCS OR A TEENAGER IN LOVE WITH THE HOTTEST FANTASY SERIES, Miami Book Fair has something for you. For 36 years, the Fair has been committed to fostering a love of reading in children. Why? Because studies show what we all know — good readers become good students, lifelong learners, and great citizens.

GENERATION GENIUS gathers all of the Fair’s literacy and learning programs for children and teens under one banner. All year long, Miami Book Fair’s Generation Genius programs, such as Read to Learn Books for Free, distribute thousands of free children’s books throughout Miami-Dade County.
IN CHILDREN’S ALLEY!

Ages 4–12

FUN ROOM:
ONE WORLD, MANY STORIES
9 a.m.–3 p.m.
Upper plaza of Children’s Alley

Bring your imaginary passports and join us on a literary journey as we read stories about different people who had an impact in history, music, and art. Learn about Betty Mae Jumper, James John Audubon, Harriet Tubman, and many more. Featured books: I am Jazz; She Persisted; The Boy Who Drew Birds; Tito Puente, Mambo King; She Sang Promise; Amelia Earhart.

Presented in partnership with HistoryMiami.

Ages 10-11

AUTHOR JOHN FITZGERALD
11 a.m. / Room 7128 (Bldg. 7, 1st Floor)

El robo real que nunca fue y Qué problema con mi nombre son libros que apuestan por estilos diferentes, pero vinculados por el humor. El primero es una historia detectivesca con personajes animales y el segundo tiene como protagonista a un niño que descubre que un nuevo alumno de su salón de clases se llama igual que él.

Con el apoyo de la Fundación Cuatro patos, el Departamento de Educación Bilingüe y Lenguas Extranjeras de las Escuelas Públicas del Condado Miami Dade y Editorial Norma.

Grades 3 – 12

AUTHOR NINA MORENO
10 a.m. / MAGIC (Bldg. 8, 1st Floor)

Don't Date Rosa Santos (Disney-Hyperion) is her first novel. Rosa Santos is cursed by the sea—at least, that's what they say. Dating her is bad news, especially if you're a boy with a boat. But Rosa feels more caught than cursed. Caught between cultures and choices. Between her abuela, a beloved healer and pillar of their community, and her mother, an artist who crashes in and out of her life like a hurricane. Between Port Coral, the quirky South Florida town they call home, and Cuba, the island her abuela refuses to talk about. As her college decision looms, Rosa collides—literally—with Alex Aquino, the mysterious boy with tattoos of the ocean whose family owns the marina. With her heart, her family, and her future on the line, can Rosa break a curse and find her place beyond the horizon?

CIRKO TEATRO presents the local favorite "El show de Enriqueta y Agapito," a puppet-theatre performance in Spanish that focuses on environmental awareness and kindness toward animals. This participatory experience will engage children, introducing them to a host of four-legged creatures, jugglers, and clowns, and inviting them on an adventure that will teach them about compassion, respect, and love for one another.

CONECTA MIAMI ARTS brings to life beloved children’s fairytales from around the world. These bilingual, immersive street-theatre pieces celebrate friendship, courage, and imagination. They also address the questions every fan of fairytales is dying to know, such as: How did Peter Pan first get to Neverland? Why isn’t the cat part of the Chinese Zodiac?
