welcome to the 38th miami book fair!

For nearly 40 years, we've transformed the Wolfson Campus of Miami Dade College in downtown Miami into a global literary destination, presenting a comprehensive, inclusive, and representative group of authors. The joy that doing this work has brought us is only surpassed by the joy we know our work—and that of our colleagues and collaborators—brings to tens of thousands each year.

We weren't able to gather downtown and celebrate in person with you last year; that was hard on all of us. And although the 2020 edition of the Fair went virtual, we kept true to our vision, creating "a Miami connected to the world, and a world connected to Miami, through a vibrant, accessible exchange of ideas."

We missed our community gathering in fellowship to take part in the conversations of our day, as we have always strived to present work that reflects the widest possible interests, the pop culture zeitgeist, and bestselling book lists of every genre. We missed the kids in Children's Alley, clutching picture books below faces rapt at the spiel of storytellers. We missed the booksellers and other vendors during Street Fair, and the groovy live bands on The Porch. We even missed the roast corn and arepas!

And so we've come back. Back to downtown, but also, yes, back on the web. All challenges present new possibilities, and we've chosen to continue our on-demand author programs on MiamiBookFairOnline.com, seeing it as an opportunity to bring our ethos of "access for all" to anyone with a smartphone, tablet, or computer.

Whether you join us downtown or from whatever corner of the world you choose to stream from, you can still expect to see the same stellar lineups: fiction and nonfiction authors, poets, journalists, and critics in conversation with synergistic moderators leading discussions; impactful readings and lively panel debates; and fun educational entertainment for kids.

On behalf of Miami Dade College — a community college serving South Florida for more than 50 years and through which we operate — as well as our staff, advisory committees, supporters and sponsors, and our new college President, Madeline Pumariega, we hope you and yours are happy, healthy, and whole, and we invite you to enjoy all of the programs you'll find at Miami Book Fair and MiamiBookFairOnline.com.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM
MEDIA PARTNERS:

if you've been to Miami Book Fair before and roamed the crayon-colored tents that dot downtown Miami, you've stumbled across Children's Alley - a special area of activities and entertainment just for kids, from infants to teens! This year's Alley will look a bit different, but we're no less committed to creating an educational wonderland that helps foster a love of reading in children. Why? Because studies show what we already know: Good readers become successful students, lifelong learners, great citizens, and a generation of people who value knowledge — something we call Generation Genius.

So there's no better place to bring families together for fun than Children's Alley, where Generation Genius meets and PROFESSOR WEMBLY WORDSMITH leads the way!

By way of his magical pink blimp, Wemby Wordsmith will bring along a taste of the rainforest in the form of a kaleidoscopic Amazonian utopia filled with multicolored animals, outdoor hoopla, and storytelling from around the world. Join us in the outdoor plaza for timed workshops, make-and-take activities, performances, and so much more all weekend long!

Featured Artist: Francisca Oyhanarte

You'll recognize FRANCISCA OYHANARTE's work on this year's official Miami Book Fair 2021 poster, but just wait until you see her colorful animals in person! Francisca is a Miami-based multidisciplinary artist whose joyful animations, gigantic inflatables, murals, and live visuals for performances originate from her surreal multicolored paper cut-outs. She creates healing energy waves through color and light, producing visionary and uplifting effects on those who witness her artistic experiments. Get creative and create your own patterns or color them in at our various community coloring walls, with Francisca's designs! And you can join the artist herself for a construction paper collage workshop that starts with a short tai chi exercise. Be sure to take some fun family photos in front of our selfie wall. You'll find yourself wrapped up in the liveliness of all the colors and shapes in no time!

The Oasis: A Reimagining Cities Project

The Idea Center at Miami Dade College and Moonlighter Miami have teamed up to bring a brand-new lounge area to the plaza! As a community project, the challenge was to design public spaces that help keep folks safe during COVID-19 and provided an additional solution to micromobility challenges. This year's winning design will be a colorful resting area located near the outdoor fountains that provides an open-air lounge space where you can start on a book you just picked up, rest in between author events and activities, and gather the family to watch pop-up performances and demonstrations. Need a break? See you at the Oasis!

What's New for Children's Alley This Year

Taking inspiration from PROFESSOR WEMBLY WORDSMITH and his travels to the Amazonian rainforests, we're basking in the glow of the great outdoors! Going up in place of our old tent walls is a canopy to help shield us from the sun, which will also create large, open-air spaces where everyone can comfortably enjoy the sights and sounds of Children's Alley. Some activity areas will be available for drop-in projects and some will have timed workshops. Since seating will be limited, all timed workshops will require a free ticket, which you can pick up at the Info Booth. Outdoor lounge areas and picnic tables will be available to all for some relaxation in between all of your adventures. So plan on getting creative outside with art, music, and books under a bright blue sky. After all, what's better than Miami in the fall?

PROFESSOR WEMBLY WORDSMITH

OPEN-AIR CANOPIES

Learn!

PROFESSOR WEMBLY WORDSMITH has picked up some interesting artifacts and learned plenty of fascinating things on his journey. For example, did you know that humans and mastodons existed at the same time in Florida? We'll have fossil replicas to prove it! Keep an eye out for our LEARN area where you'll discover science demos, archaeology treasures, history lessons, and so much more. This area will feature a mix of hands-on activities and "Ask an Expert" chats and Q&As. Sneak in a lesson or two while having fun outdoors!

A Fun-Filled Trip With SunnyBell and Florida Dairy Farmers!

Join SUNNYBELL, Florida Dairy Farmers' spokesperson, as she takes you on an adventure-filled journey to a dairy farm, the state fair, and a MOOical — she'll even show you how to practice Mooga (aka cow yoga). Learn where milk comes from and how to make ice cream and butter. From books, activities and experiments, Florida Dairy Farmers will be sharing how milk is nutritious, delicious, and fun!

Books for Kids of All Ages

BOOKS & BOOKS JR. is setting up camp in Children's Alley once more! When Professor Wembly Wordsmith isn't traipsing around the Amazonian undergrowth, his favorite place to explore is the towering, excitement-filled stacks of our favorite independent bookstore, Books & Books. And our friendly neighborhood booksellers will be back at the Fair with all the latest and greatest, from board books to YA faves. Swing by for book recommendations, signed copies, and more — you can even get some holiday shopping out of the way!

Create!

Life tip from PROFESSOR WEMBLY WORDSMITH: Sometimes you just gotta make a mess with color! Trek over to our CREATE station, where we'll feature a variety of artistic activities to help your imagination soar! Several timed artist workshops will take place on Saturday and Sunday, where parents and kids can get a more in-depth art experience — space is limited, though, so make sure to pick up your free ticket at the Info Booth. For those that can't wait to get their hands on some markers, look out for our make-and-take area, where you can just drop in and color, make a bookmark, decorate a mask, and more. Let's get colorful!

Participate!

Solo exploration is great, but sometimes you need to connect with other adventurers to get the party started. So come on down to clap your hands and stomp your feet on our PARTICIPATE stage! Whether it's sitting down for an interactive folktale with a storyteller, humming along to a song, or asking an archaeologist everything you've ever wanted to know, the stage is where you'll want to be for your daily dose of entertainment. You can rest while watching short theater, stand up and dance to some songs, or clap to the beat of the drums, all while hanging out with your family and newfound friends!

Info Booth

Need a ticket to a workshop? Directions to a specific tent? A Wordsmith Passport to complete your Children's Alley adventure? Just look for the Info Booth — X marks the spot! This year, Professor Wembly Wordsmith is bringing back his passports. Just grab one from the Info Booth, then complete activities around Children's Alley to get your adventure stamps. Once your passport is full, redeem it at the Info Booth for a treasure — a book of your choice!
